Who Are We

OT Marketplace is a professional learning service marketplace that lets you find the best programs for your workforce while connecting you with the premier training intervention providers. We have partnered with 5000+ learning solution providers and have created a repository of 3000+ learning solutions.

Committed to excellence in corporate learning & development

We partner with large enterprise customers to transform their people's upskilling experiences and measure growth for their organization. Our customized learning programs fit into the way you do business.

At OT, we are thinking of your growth at a different level. We enable organizations to achieve their full potential by helping them build their learning strategies at a better speed.

Why Do We Matter

B2B CEOs/leaders expect service providers to deliver an e-commerce like customer experience. They want search results that are designed with users at the center, there is a proliferation of options to choose from.

At OT Marketplace we help you Discover, Evaluate and Avail services through a single aggregated platform. This promotes shorter turnaround time in browsing, booking and delivering modules.
